Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: . . . and sanitary census of the district was made by our Sanitary Inspector, Mr. J. J. O'Donnell. About 30, 000 pieces of Health Center literature were carefully distributed. Summary While the accurate determination of the number of different individuals with whom the Health Center staff came in contact and for whom distinct health services were performed is being worked out, we have estimated the figure as approximately 9, 000, or about 13 of the total population of the district. A somewhat less personal contact has been made with many thousands of individuals not counted above, as the parents of the children, the other children of the family, neighbors and friends who have acted as interpreters, etc. The great majority if not every family has been reached by two or more of our health circulars, to say nothing of the general educational influence of our Health Center windows, talks, newspaper publicity, exhibits, and the like. The house to house canvasses of our nurses and sanitary inspectors have brought the fact of the Health Centers existence to every family in the district. So we feel we may fairly say that in the first twelve months of its existence the Health Center has taken firm root in the life of Wards 10, 11, and 12. July-Sept 1921 During July, August and September 2215 visits have been made to the Health Center Headquarters for consultation, examination and advice. Of these 645 were examination and vaccination of children of pre-school age...
