Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Outline of Departmental Activities of the Committee of Public Safety: For the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania In active service the Committee of Public Safety for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has taken rank as one of the best constructed and most efficient of the State bodies created to be war auxiliaries of the United States Government. Official Washington has expressed its commendation by adopting the Committee as the sole medium through which is carried out practically all of the national policies so far as they apply to Pennsylvania. That the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania reposes similar confidence in the war-emergency undertakings as planned and conducted is continually expressed by succeeding appropriations to the committee, the most recent of which amounted to $312,000. To list the successes of the Committee would be to review practically all of the noteworthy war-time achievements of the State. In every one of them it has participated either as the inspiration or as the directing force. Co-ordinated, concentrated effort has been the working policy, and so smoothly have the activities proceeded that many remarkable results such as exceptional food crop returns, record-breaking army and navy recruiting, conservation and war service registration, and widespread adaptation of industrial and other conditions to the changes produced by a state of war, have appeared to be almost spontaneous. The Committee was created in March, 1917, by appointment of the Governor of the State. It adopted a working plan which concentrates activities in five divisions comprising seventeen separate departments, all under compact, central executive control. The Committee's work of rendering effective State aid to the nation's war effort is financed through a legislative appropriation of $2,000,000. Supervision of...
