Generally, the federal government and the states share in the cost of the Medicaid program. However, the federal government pays 100 percent of the Medicaid programs cost to provide services to American Indians and Alaska Natives at IHS-or tribally operated facilities. In fiscal year 2007, Congress appropriated approximately 3. 2 billion for IHS Funding IHS, which included funding for the provision of direct care at IHS-funded facilities, contract health services, and other functions. In addition to IHSs federal appropriation, IHS-funded facilities can be reimbursed by other payers, including Medicare and Medicaid, for the services the facilities 21 provide. IHS-funded facilities are allowed to retain reimbursements without an offsetting reduction in their IHS funding. Thus, revenues from Medicare and Medicaid can increase the financial capacity of IHS-funded facilities to provide needed medical services. According to IHS data, the amount of Medicaid and Medicare reimbursement that IHS has collected has...
