

The Green Red Green: Made Almost Entirely from Recycled Material

By Red Green

Random House USA Inc, India, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Red Green was recycling material long before the green revolution got underway. Look at the automobiles he s driven over the years. Many of those were assembled using the same basic method employed for The Green Red Green by welding together the surviving bits of some old wrecks. In this case, we re talking about the three Red Geen books published long ago by other, inferior publishers: Duct Tape Is Not Enough, a collection of newspaper columns by Red Green s alter-ego Steve Smith on surviving middle age; Red Green Talks Cars ; and Red s literary debut The Red Green Book, a souvenir of the TV show. The selection for his best-of pretty much made itself. Out went the Steve Smith columns with once-topical references; out went the material from The Red Green Book that was in the voices of the other characters (he s been carrying those bums for too long) and out went very little from the perenially hilarious Cars. The resulting mass of pieces have been well-shaken into a new mix; re-edited to new levels of...
